COLLECT

Almighty God, who called your Church to bear witness that you were in Christ reconciling the world to yourself: help us proclaim the good news of your love, that all who hear it may be drawn to you; through him who was lifted up on the cross, and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God now and for ever. Amen

READING

Romans 12. 9-end

Let love be genuine; hate what is evil, hold fast to what is good; love one another with mutual affection; outdo one another in showing honour. Do not lag in zeal, be ardent in spirit, serve the Lord. Rejoice in hope, be patient in suffering, persevere in prayer. Contribute to the needs of the saints; extend hospitality to strangers. Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse them. Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep. Live in harmony with one another; do not be haughty, but associate with the lowly; do not claim to be wiser than you are. Do not repay anyone evil for evil, but take thought for what is noble in the sight of all. If it is possible, so far as it depends on you, live peaceably with all. Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave room for the wrath of God; for it is written, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord." No, if your enemies are hungry, feed them; if they are thirsty, give them something to drink; for by doing this you will heap burning coals on their heads." Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

GOSPEL

Matthew 16. 21-end

From that time on, Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and undergo great suffering at the hands of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and on the third day be raised. And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him, saying, "God forbid it, Lord! This must never happen to you." But he turned and said to Peter, "Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to me; for you are setting your mind not on divine things but on human things." Then Jesus told his disciples, "If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me. For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake will find it. For what will it profit them if they gain the whole world but forfeit their life? For the Son of Man is to come with his angels in the glory of his Father, and then he will repay everyone for what has been done. Truly I tell you, there are some standing here who will not taste death before they see the Son of Man coming in his kingdom.

Do you have some time to spare on a Sunday?

Sherborne Abbey is looking for additional sidesmen and welcomers to join our dedicated team. If you enjoy meeting people and want to play an active role in our Abbey church community, we would love to hear from you.

We are currently looking for volunteers to assist with:

8.00 am Holy Communion

9.30 am Parish Eucharist

6.00 pm Choral Evensong

Welcomer slots throughout the day, in between services

Sidesmen and welcomers provide a vital ministry of hospitality, greeting congregation members, distributing hymn books, and ensuring everyone feels welcome from the moment they step through the South West Door.

Whether you can help once a month or more regularly, your time would be greatly valued.

To find out more or to volunteer, please contact the Parish Office or speak to one of the Churchwardens after a service.

Thought for the day will return in September
